COPYRIGHT REVISION ACT

Re: APIII 2008 Abstract (please type or print title below)

In compliance with the Copyright Revision Act of 1976, effective January 1, 1978, the College of American Pathologists (CAP), in consideration of taking further action in reviewing and editing your submission, requests that each author sign a copy of this form before manuscript review can proceed. Such signature shall evidence the mutual understanding between the CAP and the undersigned author(s) hereby transferring, assigning, or otherwise conveying all copyright ownership, including any and all rights incidental thereto, exclusively to the CAP, in the event that such work is published by the CAP.

The author warrants: that the author is the author and sole owner of the work submitted; that it is original and has never been published in any form; and that the author has full power to grant such rights. In addition, the author hereby grants to the CAP the right: to edit, revise, abridge, condense, and translate the foregoing work.

In addition, if you prepared this manuscript as an employee of the U.S. Federal Government, please so indicate by signing the following statement: I was an employee of the U.S. Federal Government when this work was investigated and prepared for publication; therefore, it is not protected by the Copyright Act and there is no copyright of which the ownership can be transferred.
